

I am writing to express my concern with Sinclair Broadcast Group's decision to pressure local affiliates to pre-empt local programming in order to show anti-Kerry propaganda two weeks before the election. This decision is unethical if not illegal.

There is no public interest being served by this stunt. And it is clear that the FCC's policies of allowing corporate consolidation of media sources are jeopardizing the basic principles under which our democracy is founded.

Thank you.